

5. Hatched!

Axel took the egg into the cave and wrapped it up in his fur blanket.

He looked after it in the day and he slept with it at night.

He watched to see if it would hatch, but nothing happened.

He waited a whole week, but still nothing happened.

Then he saw a crack in the shell and a beak popped out.

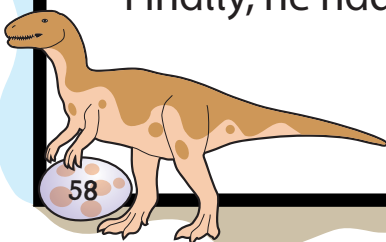

Then he saw two feet and a tail popped out.

Then he saw two eyes and a head popped out.

The shell dropped off and out stepped a baby pterosaur.

"I'm calling you Terror," said Axel.

Finally, he had his own pet dinosaur, but would Mum let him keep it?
