

5. Dusk to the Rescue (Again!)

The cavemen loaded the rocks on to the cart that Axel had invented.

"This is my best invention yet," boasted Axel. "It is even better than the raft."

They managed to get most of the rocks on the cart.

"Now all we do is push it," said Axel.

They tried to push the cart but it was too heavy.

"Come on," said Axel. "We need to push harder."

They pushed harder, but it still wouldn't move.

"I know. We need more people," said Axel.

Most of their friends came to help, but it still wouldn't budge.

"Oh no!" cried the disappointed Axel. "This is the worst day ever!"

"I've got a better idea," said Dusk, riding on the stegosaurus.

"The stegosaurus can pull the cart!"
