

Characteristics of a Historian

The Children at St. George's will develop....

- An excellent knowledge and understanding of people, events and contexts from a range of historical concepts and processes.
- The ability to think critically about history and communicate ideas confidently in styles appropriate to a range of audiences
- The ability to consistently support, evaluate and challenge their own and others' views using detailed, appropriate accurate historical evidence derived from a range of sources.
- The ability to think, reflect, debate, discuss and evaluate the past, formulating and refining questions and lines of enquiry.
- The passion for history and an enthusiastic engagement in learning, which develops their sense of curiosity about the past and their understanding of how and why people interpret the past in different ways.
- A respect for historical evidence and the ability to make robust and critical use of it to support their explanations and judgements.
- A desire to embrace challenging activities, including opportunities to undertake high-quality research across a range of historical topics.

