

Story 1

Tommy's Garden

1. Tommy's Garden

This is Tommy Toe.
He is a very small boy.
He is so small he can fit inside a mug.

Tommy wants to play in the garden.
His mum and dad won't let him play outside.
They say the garden isn't safe for such a small boy.

Tommy really wants to play in the garden.
One day his mum and dad are busy doing jobs.
They don't see Tommy creep out of the house.

Tommy creeps into the garden.
He plays in the garden.
He sees lots of things in the garden.

Tommy sees a worm pop his head out of a hole.

"What are you?" asks Tommy.

"I'm a worm," says the worm.

"What do you do?" asks Tommy.

"I help the soil," says the worm.

"Worms are good for gardens."

Tommy sees a bee fly onto a flower.

"What are you?" asks Tommy.

"I'm a bee," says the bee.

"What do you do?" asks Tommy.

"I help the flowers," says the bee.

"Bees are good for gardens."

Tommy sees a spider in its web.

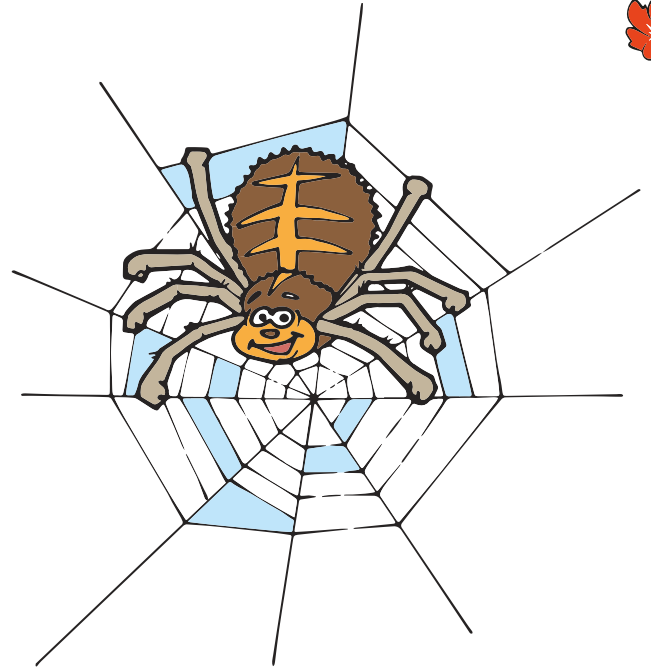

"What are you?" asks Tommy.

"I'm a spider," says the spider.

"What do you do?" asks Tommy.

"I eat bugs," says the spider.

"Spiders are good for gardens."

Tommy sees a snail on a plant.

"What are you?" asks Tommy.

"I'm a snail," says the snail.

"What do you do?" asks Tommy.

"I eat all the plants," says the snail.

"Oh no! You're not good for gardens!" says Tommy.
